Dear Mrs. Daufeldt:

Your letter of June 30 has just reached me in Paris, and is the first I have received from you. I remember you and your husband very well, and our visit to your home.

I am writing to the American authorities in Berlin about him, describing some of our conversations. I would like to be of some help to him, as he was very helpful to me in 1939-40 for my journalistic work.

My wife joins me in good wishes.

Sincerely yours

Denanee Bess
